

A complex phylogenetic tree with a central backbone and numerous branching points. Nodes are marked with colored dots (blue, green, yellow, orange, red, cyan) and some are larger than others. The tree is rooted at the bottom left and branches outwards, with some branches ending in grey dots.

